Legal background:

Previous Lafayette Crime Prevention Commission member 8 years
Co-Chair with Terence Bruniers 2 years

Chair red ribbon committee Lafayette 4 years

Comments/Additional Information:

Gave up being on Comission due to work committment (50-60 hour law firm hours!) and commuting from Menlo Park. I have missed the community involvement. Decided if there was a vacancy to apply and can now reschedule the time to be an active member of the commission.

APPLICABLE TRAINING AND EXPERIENCE

I have recently retired after forty years as a probation officer and supervisor in Alameda, Contra Costa, Solano, and Escambia County (Pensacola, Florida). I have also worked for various courts servicing adult and juvenile matters, as a Classification officer in the Florida State prison at Raiford, and as a street gang worker in East Oakland. Over the years, I have been a college instructor in Criminal Justice classes and a trainer for correctional staff. In sum, I have work experience in nearly every aspect of the Criminal Justice system. During my employment in Solano County, I was the county Juvenile Traffic Hearing Officer for 10 years.

While employed at Alameda county, I was a member of the Probation Department Emergency preparedness committee.
